

“Feel Africa” Closing Event

Message Through Arts and Music

Feel Africa with arts and music concert!

Open to the Public

July
4
2022

Central Plaza
Tokyo University of Foreign Studies

Our students will perform African songs and music. In addition, Paul Kani Bahoya, who created the “Feel Africa” poster, will explain behind-the scene story of his graphic arts.

This is the closing event of the Exhibition “Feel Africa: Message Through Arts and Lens” which will end on July 6, 2022. Let’s feel and experience African culture with the performers!

Program

- 11:45 Opening Remarks
- 11:50 Senegalese song “Momy” by Fafa and friends
- 11:55 Ghanaian folk song “Senyiwa” by Samuel and audience
- 12:00 Paul Kani’s description of his graphic arts
- 12:25 Swahili song “Baba Yetu” by Rodrigue and friends
- 12:35 Closing remarks

MC: Brandon (South Africa)
Performers:

Achille (Gabon)
Rodrigue (Burundi)
Etuwete (Namibia)
Fafa (Senegal)
Hanán (South Africa)
Jato (Cameroon)
Lisa (South Africa)
Paul (DRC)
Samuel (Ghana)
Shukulu (Rwanda)
Wusu (Sierra Leone)
...and friends

“Feel Africa” Exhibition Committee (Inter-University Exchange Project <Africa>, African Studies Center, African Area Studies, School of International and Area Studies)

Contact: feel\_africa@tufs.ac.jp

