

Comprehensive Study on Language Education Methods and Cross-linguistic Proficiency Evaluation Methods for Asian Languages: 2012-2013

Table of Contents

Preface by TOMIMORI Nobuo (Project leader)

Part 1: Fundamental Research

Perspectives of Language Teaching in Japanese Higher Education with regard to “References for Language and Literature Field in Undergraduate Education” (Symposium held by the Science Council of Japan)
TOMIMORI Nobuo	1
Now and Future of Plurilingual Education in Japanese High Schools and Collaboration with Universities
YAMAZAKI Yoshiro	11
CEFR and its Receiving in Japan: Foreign and Japanese Language Education
HAMATSU Daisuke	23
Using and Applying the CEFR – in the Field of Foreign Language Education and Korean Language Education as a Foreign Language in Korea
SEO Areum	39
The Significance of Academic Tasks in Teaching Japanese for Academic Purposes: Based on Practice in the Japanese Language Program of Tokyo University of Foreign Studies
FUJIMORI Hiroko	51
Implications of “Globalisation” and “Intercultural Communication Competence” suggested by Michael Byram and Lynne Parmenter (ed), The Common European Framework of Reference – The Globalisation of Language Education Policy – (Bristol, 2012)
TOMIMORI Nobuo	63