

PCS Global Campus Program

PCS peace and conflict studies

Advanced Course Spring 2008

Photos of Online Lecture

Outline of Global Campus Program [GCP]:

Aiming at deepening Peace and Conflict Studies by Creating Online Lecture through TV conferencing system, providing the opportunities of Joint Research and Essay Contest beyond national boundaries among Afghanistan (Kabul University), Cambodia (Paññasāstra University of Cambodia), Indonesia (Gadjah Mada University), Japan (Tokyo University of Foreign Studies) and Sri Lanka (University of Peradeniya)

2008 Yearly Schedule of GCP:

- May - June : Online Lecture (Advanced Course on Tuesday afternoon)
- July - : Joint Research
- October - December: Online Lecture (Basic Course)
- December - : Essay Contest

※Details to be announced

Time
13:00-16:00 in Sri Lanka
14:30-17:30 in Cambodia & Indonesia
16:30-19:30 in Japan

Curriculum Development Conference by faculties at TUFs, Tokyo

Eligibility of Application for Advanced Course:

1. Education
Univ. First Degree holders, Post-graduates students, undergraduates in their last year can also be considered
2. English Proficiency
Ability to write academic paper in addition to the basic requirements such as minimum level of comprehension, debate and writing effectively in the course
3. Knowledge Level
Basic knowledge on Peace and Conflict issues

Application Deadline:

Online Advanced Course 18th April 2008

- Expected students should send application forms by email at:
- Students in Afghanistan & Japan: global_campus@tufs.ac.jp
 - Students in Cambodia: gcp-cambodia@tufs.ac.jp
 - Students in Indonesia: gcp-indonesia@tufs.ac.jp
 - Students in Sri Lanka: gcp-srilanka@tufs.ac.jp

For further information:

GCP Website: <http://www.tufs.ac.jp/common/pg/pcs/globalcampus/index.php>

Photos of Online Lecture