4. Application Procedure

Precautions on Application Procedure

Applicants must follow instructions in preparing their application.
(1) Applicants must submit all of the required application documents as one packet to the Admissions Office of TUFS (refer to (2) Where to Submit Your Application) by the designated deadline.
(2) Submission of an application after the application deadline is not acceptable under any circumstances. Applicants are not allowed to change the studies of their choice and so on, once their applications have been accepted.
(3) Documents will not be returned once application has been accepted. Application fee is not refundable once application has been accepted.
(4) The various certificates indicated in (3)-1 Application Documents must be original issued by the graduate school an applicant attended/is attending or a true (certified) copy of the original issued by the graduate school or a public institution, such as an embassy or a notary public. In cases where school-issued certificates are only available online , then have the printouts certified and stamped or signed by your graduate school, or a public institution.
(5) In case the original certificates are issued in a language other than Japanese, English, you must attach a Japanese or an English translation. It is preferable to have verifications of translations issued by a public institution, such as an embassy, but they are still accepted if this is not the case. However, in that case refer to the information stated in 11. Precautions (1). TUFS does not provide the service to verify translated documents.
(6) The TUFS Admissions Office issues a certified copy of original certificates. Follow the instructions below when you request the service. Contact the Admissions Office in advance. Bring or mail your original certificates to the Admissions Office. If you mail the original document , please include a self-addressed envelope and affix sufficient stamps for Japanese registered post. You must write down a Japanese address on the self-addressed envelope, and the envelope must be big enough to contain all the documents. Make sure to attach a memo indicating your own or your representative's contact information (telephone number, etc.) in case we need to reach you regarding your request. The university will not be held responsible for any damage caused by loss of documents or delays in returning documents by post. The Admissions Office will be accepting requests on weekdays, 10:00-12:00 and 13:00-16:00, from Monday, March 4, 2024 to Thursday, May 2, 2024. *A certified copy will be given to the applicant in a sealed envelope. Do not open the envelope, and submit it as it is. *If you are requesting this service by post during the application period when sending in other application documents at the same time and you need to have the original certificates returned, attach a memo indicating this.
(7) Applicants residing outside of Japan must have a representative residing in Japan (contact from the University will be made to the representative residing in Japan).
(8) Even if you have submitted the same application documents to TUFS in the past, you are required to prepare and submit a new set of documents.
(9) You are not allowed to simultaneously apply for 2024 October Admission for the Doctoral Program and the Joint Doctoral Program for Sustainability Research.

Applicants must submit all the required application documents as one packet to the address indicated in (2) Where to Submit Your Application by the designated deadline. Application documents submitted as an e-mail attachment will not be accepted.

Please note that application documents, once submitted, will not be returned for any reason. Take utmost care in submitting your academic certificates. If you need to keep the original, you must submit a true copy of such certificates.

After the application is received, details such as the application number and examinee's guidelines will be notified by e-mail.

9. Handling of Personal Information

In accordance with the “Act on Protection of Personal Information held by Incorporated Administrative Agencies, etc.” and “Regulations on Personal Information Protection by National University Corporation, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies,” we handle personal information submitted by applicants at the time of application, such as an applicant's name, address, phone number, academic grades, and test scores, as follows:

- Information provided by the applicants is used for the purpose related to selection, admission, and enrollment.
- Information used in selection process such as test results can be used as data in a way that does not identify an individual to improve education and selection process in this university.
- Information of successful applicants who have completed the entrance procedure is used for the purpose related to educational matters (e.g., creating a student registry), student affairs, and collecting tuitions.
- When information is used for purposes above, some part of business can be outsourced to outside companies (contractors). In such cases, we sign contract about proper handling of personal information with contractors and provide whole or part of personal information we have to contractors to the extent necessary for business outsourced.

10. Extension of Study Period for Working Adults

While the standard duration of study for the TUFSS Doctoral Program is three years, a special provision to extend the study period beyond three years may be granted to employed persons. Details will be provided in the entrance procedure documents.

11. Precautions

- (1) If the information submitted is detected to be false or does not include facts that must be presented to TUFSS, we have all the right to cancel the applicant's matriculation even after they have completed the entrance procedure.
- (2) If a successful applicant, after completing the entrance procedure, decides to decline their matriculation, they must submit a Request Form for Withdrawal from Enrollment (form provided) to the Admissions Office by Monday, September 30, 2024. If they fail to submit the request form by the deadline, they will be registered in our university system by TUFSS, be required to pay tuition, and may be penalized. *The Request Form for Withdrawal from Enrollment can be provided by the Admissions Office.
