Admission Information

The Peace and Conflict Studies (PCS) Course is an interdisciplinary research and study program at Tokyo University of Foreign Studies (TUFS), created to attract international students and researchers at the graduate level who are interested in exploring diverse topics that fall within the emerging discipline of PCS. In the 2004 academic year, TUFS began to offer a concentration in PCS within its 2-year Master of Arts Degree (International Studies) Program. English is the primary language of instruction for all courses within the PCS curriculum. Outstanding international and Japanese applicants are invited to apply for the Master of Arts Degree Program, PCS Course commencing in the 2022 academic year.

We would also like to note that since 2020, “PCS Course to Foster Professionals for Post-conflict Peacebuilding” within the Peace and Conflict Studies Course of the Graduate School of Global Studies, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies has been designated as “International Priority Graduate Program (PGP)” under the Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship for international students from conflict-affected countries worldwide. Outstanding applicants from countries that are currently, or have recently experienced major conflict are invited to apply for this program. Applicants who are interested in also applying for the PGP-MEXT scholarship should read the details on pages 13-16.

At the moment December 2021, special measures due to the COVID-19 pandemic are not planned with regard to the PCS course admissions.

Points for Application

<Academic Background>

Applicants for the PCS Course are expected to have an undergraduate degree in a relevant academic field in the social sciences (such as political science, international relations, economics, sociology, or anthropology) or humanities, and ideally have some related professional experience. International or cross-cultural exposure will also be highly assessed. If the undergraduate degree is from other than above, applicants are highly recommended to have taken some courses within these fields. Through the application process, applicants should demonstrate a genuine interest in and commitment to issues relating to the field of Peace and Conflict Studies and potential for future academic and professional success. This includes evidence of the applicant's motivation to work independently and capacity to design and carry out original research. Each applicant may submit one additional academic or professional publication (written in English) he or she wishes the Admissions Committee to consider. If you have a preferred academic supervisor at TUFS (PCS), please write down his/her name on the application form. However, another supervisor may become your supervisor.

PCS professors: Professor ISEZAKI Kenji, Professor SHINODA Hideaki, and Professor MATSUNAGA Yasuyuki

<Language Skills>

All non-native speakers of English are required to take one of the major English proficiency tests and arrange the test score to be submitted to TUFS (taken within the last two years). Generally speaking, it would be desirable to have the following minimum score to academically succeed in our program, while it is not a requirement:

Test	Preferred Minimum Score
TOEFL	PBT600 / iBT95
IELTS	7.0
TOEIC (Listening & Reading)	870
Cambridge English	180

Native speakers of English and non-native speakers of English who have obtained or are expected to obtain a degree from an English-based degree program at an institute of higher education (a university or higher) are not required to submit a test score. However, it must be clearly stated on a transcript, a certificate of (expected) graduation, or a separate certificate issued by the attended institution that the language of instruction is/was English for the said program.

*Find more details on “How to Submit Your English Test Score to TUFS” on page 21.

*Note: Those who would also like to apply for the PGP-MEXT scholarship are required to have the English proficiency of CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference for Language) B2 level or above. There are also separate requirement in regards to those who obtained/will obtain a degree from an English-based degree program. Refer to page 21 for the details.

<Application Fees>

	International applicants* <sup>1</sup>	Japanese nationals AND those who do not fall into the “International applicants” category
Application fee	JPY 10,000	JPY 30,000

*<sup>1</sup> “International applicants” refers to those with nationalities other than Japanese who aim to obtain/maintain the visa status of “student” upon entrance to TUFS.

IMPORTANT!!

- ✓ Applicants who are already recipients of a MEXT scholarship do not need to pay the application fee.
- ✓ Applicants who are undergoing selection for a MEXT scholarship and those applying for the PGP-MEXT scholarship are responsible for paying the application fee.

The application fee must be paid before submitting application materials, either through Flywire (outside Japan), or domestically (within Japan) through a bank transfer.

Please note that you are required to attach a print-out of the email confirming the payment or a receipt/conformation of transfer when paid through remittance or bank transfer.

<Payment from outside Japan>

Payment through Flywire

Access to <https://www.flywire.com/pay/tufs/>

Flywire is a system that allows easy payments from overseas eliminating operational obstacles of international transfers.

<Submit Your Application Documents>

All documents listed on the “List of Application Documents” must arrive at the Admissions Office of TUFS before the specified deadline. Alterations to the content of application documents will not be allowed once they are accepted by the university. The application fee paid is non-refundable. Additionally, all materials submitted must contain only factual and honest information and include the applicant’s own work only (i.e. any sort of plagiarism will immediately disqualify an applicant). An applicant who is found to have misrepresented any information or documents in his/her application after having commenced his/her studies at TUFS will be asked to leave the university.

Application documents will then be evaluated by faculty members to gauge the overall suitability and potential of each applicant to benefit from and contribute to graduate study in the PCS Course.

IMPORTANT!!

Please be reminded that application documents, once submitted, will not be returned for any reason. Take utmost care in submitting your academic certificates. If you need to keep the original, you must submit a true copy of such certificates.

<Interview>

An interview will then be held. For applicants residing outside Japan, an interview will be held through an internet video call. Applicants residing in Japan during the selection process are required to attend an in-person interview with the Admissions Committee at TUFS campus in Tokyo, Japan.

<Announcement of Results>

Results will be announced on the website (applicants will be e-mailed the URL where they can view the results once they are available). Inquiries concerning the results are not accepted.

<Entrance Procedure>

(1) Period for the Entrance Procedure

Between late June – late July, 2022

Details will be provided to successful applicants after the Announcement of Results. Successful applicants who fail to complete the entrance procedure during the designated period will not be allowed to matriculate.

Successful applicants residing in Japan will receive a formal admission notification letter through registered postal mail along with relevant information concerning enrollment, registration, and other procedures. Those residing outside Japan will receive an e-mail containing the same information along with instructions on immigration procedures. Successful applicants residing abroad who have decided to enroll in TUFS will be requested to submit a Pledge of Entrance (stating that they will complete the entrance procedure by September 30, 2022) by a specified date in July 2022 to promise their matriculation. Details will be provided in the documents mentioned above.

(2) Admission Fee

JPY 282,000 (as of 2021 admission)

Recipients of the MEXT scholarship as of and after October 1, 2022 are exempted from the admission fee payment. Please note that successful applicants who were recipients of the MEXT scholarship at the time of application but who will lose their scholarship status as of October 1, 2022, or later are responsible for payment of the admission fee.

(3) Additional Information

- Details on the entrance procedure will be announced to each successful applicant.
- Successful applicants who were expected to graduate from a university at the time of application but who fail to do so will not be allowed to matriculate even if they have completed the entrance procedure.
- The payment of JPY 267,900 tuition (as of 2021 admission) for the first half of one academic year is due in October. Another payment of JPY 267,900 for the second half is due in May.
- If the tuition is revised at the time of enrollment or during the academic year, the new tuition will be charged.
- Successful applicants are required to make a payment for the Personal Accident Insurance for Students Pursuing Education and Research (PAS) and other miscellaneous fees, in addition to the admission fee, during the entrance procedure.
- Successful applicants who will continue to work or be enrolled in another school must submit a “Letter of Approval to be Enrolled in TUFS Master’s Program” issued by their employer in any form of paper during the entrance procedure.
- Successful applicants who need to obtain a student visa to enter and study in Japan must consult with the PCS Office during the entrance procedure.

<Accommodation>

Successful applicants may apply for a room in the on-campus dormitory. Please note, however, that a room is not guaranteed, and even if a room has been allocated, the duration of residence is, in principle, limited to six months. Regular students who are assigned an on-campus room and who are scheduled to study at TUFS for more than one year will be asked to find an off-campus residence for the latter part of their time at TUFS. Details on housing will be provided to successful applicants after the Announcement of the Results.

<Classes and Research Guidance for Working Adults>

To proactively promote graduate school education for working adults while maintaining its research and education standards, the Master's Program of TUFS takes the following expedient measures for employed persons (those who have worked for two years or longer at the scheduled admission) pursuant to the special measures in Article 14 of the Standards for the Establishment of Graduate Schools.

- (1) Employed persons take classes and research guidance normally in their first year and can take research guidance in their second year while working at their workplace.
- (2) Employed persons who will apply for the special measures shall, in principle, acquire 26 credits, excluding 4 credits for MA Thesis Guidance taken in the second year, of the 30 credits required for completing the program, by taking classes during normal school hours in the first year.
- (3) Employed persons shall take research guidance within a specific time or period in the second year according to the special measures.
- (4) Those who wish to apply for the special measures must submit a “Request Form for Classes and Research Guidance for Working Adults (Request Form for the Special Measures in Article 14 of the Standards for the Establishment of Graduate Schools) 社会人の授業及び研究指導の特別申請（大学院設置基準第 14 条の特例適用希望申請書）” (designated form). (Download the form from our website.)

<Consultation with Physically Challenged Applicants>

Applicants with a disability or developmental disorder, as specified in Article 22, Clause 3 of the Order for Enforcement of the School Education Act of Japan, who need special adjustment and support in accordance with the degree of their difficulty during the examination and after being admitted to TUFS must consult with GAO prior to their application.

In case an applicant has become in need of such care after the deadline, contact GAO immediately.

(1) Consultation Period

Applicants for PCS Course under PGP-MEXT Scholarship: Until Friday, January 7, 2022

Applicants for PCS Course: Until Friday, April 22, 2022.

(2) What to Submit

Prepare the following documents in any form of paper. Bring them in person or send them by registered postal mail, courier service, or via e-mail to GAO. We may request a meeting with the applicant or their representative at TUFS if needed.

[Necessary Information and Documents]

<Handling of Personal Information>

In accordance with the “Act on Protection of Personal Information held by Incorporated Administrative Agencies, etc.” and “Regulations on Personal Information Protection by National University Corporation, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies,” we handle personal information submitted by applicants at the time of application, such as an applicant’s name, address, phone number, academic grades, and test scores, as follows:

- Information provided by the applicants is used for the purpose related to selection, admission, and enrollment.
- Information used in selection process such as test results can be used as data in a way that does not identify an individual to improve education and selection process in this university.
- Information of successful applicants who have completed the entrance procedure is used for the purpose related to educational matters (e.g., creating a student registry), student affairs, and collecting tuitions.
- When information is used for purposes above, some part of business can be outsourced to outside companies (contractors). In such cases, we sign contract about proper handling of personal information with contractors and provide whole or part of personal information we have to contractors to the extent necessary for business outsourced.

<Precautions>

- (1) Application fee is not refundable once application has been accepted. Documents will not be returned once application has been accepted.
- (2) If the information submitted is detected to be false or does not include facts that must be presented to TUFSS, we have all the right to cancel the applicant’s matriculation even after they have completed the entrance procedure.
- (3) If a successful applicant, after completing the entrance procedure, decides to decline their matriculation, they must submit a Request Form for Withdrawal from Enrollment (form provided) to the Admissions Office by Friday, September 30, 2022. If they fail to submit the request form by the deadline, they will be registered in our university system, be required to make a tuition payment, and may be subject to face other problems. Make sure to submit the request form as soon as possible.

*Obtain the Request Form from the Admissions Office as soon as you decide to withdraw.

The Monbukagakusho Honors Scholarship for Privately-Financed International Students is not included in the Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship Programs;
  - ④ Those who are currently also applying to another program under the Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship system. This includes the programs for which scholarship payments will begin in FY2022;
  - ⑤ Those who are already enrolled in a Japanese university or other institution with a residence status of "student," or who are going to be enrolled, or plan to enroll, in a Japanese university or other institution as a privately-financed international student from the time of application to the MEXT scholarship program in the applicant's country until the commencement of the period for payment of the MEXT scholarship. However, this stipulation does not apply to privately-financed international students who, even though they are enrolled, or are planning to enroll, in a Japanese university or other institution, verifiably complete their studies before the start of the scholarship payment period, return to their home country at the time of the scholarship application, and newly acquire the "student" residence status and come to Japan;
  - ⑥ Those who are planning to receive scholarship money from an organization other than MEXT (including a government organization of the applicant's country) on top of the scholarship money provided by MEXT after the start of the scholarship payment period
  - ⑦ Those who are expected to graduate at the time of application and cannot satisfy the condition of academic background by the deadline given;
  - ⑧ Holders of dual nationality at the time of application who cannot verify that they will give up Japanese nationality by the time of the arrival in Japan;
  - ⑨ Those who plan to, from the time of application for the MEXT scholarship program, engage in long-term research (such as fieldwork or internship) outside Japan or plan to take a long-term leave of absence from the university;
  - ⑩ Those who have completed a doctoral course and have no intention to obtain a degree
- (11) Must contribute to the mutual understanding of his/her country and Japan by participating in activities held at the school and in the community. After returning to their home country, former scholarship recipients shall maintain close contact with the university where they studied, cooperate in conducting post-return survey questionnaires, participate in events conducted by Japanese diplomatic missions in their home country, and work toward improving relations between their home country and Japan.

<Others>

- The recipient's academic performance will be checked every year. If a recipient's grade points calculated according to a formula specified by MEXT is found to be lower than 2.30 (full mark being 3.00), the student will lose its status as a scholarship student, and the scholarship will be canceled from then onward.
- Please note that once it is decided that you will be recommended to the MEXT, you will be asked to submit the Certificate of Health along with other MEXT scholarship application documents.

IMPORTANT!!
