

United Nations Headquarters
New York
Spring 2011 Session

Dear Friends/Colleagues:

I am pleased to announce that the internships applications website at careers.un.org has been opened for the Spring 2011 Session.

The United Nations in New York is offering the possibility for graduate students currently enrolled in a degree programme to participate in its unpaid Spring 2011 internship programme commencing mid January through mid March 2011. The deadline for the application of next year's Spring session is 24 September 2010.

The programme has a competitive selection process. The internship is unpaid and full-time, under the supervision of a staff member in the department or office to which the intern is assigned. Daily responsibilities will depend on the individual's background, the mandate of the department to which he/she is assigned and the internship period.

To qualify for the United Nations Headquarters Internship Programme, the applicants must be enrolled in a degree programme in a graduate school (second university degree or higher) at the time of application and during the internship. Applicants pursuing their studies in countries where higher education is not divided into undergraduate and graduate stages must have completed at least four years of full-time studies at a university or equivalent institution towards the completion of a degree. Eligible candidates should apply through:
