

Overview of Spring 2027 Admission Information

Doctoral Program, Graduate School of Global Studies, TUFS

Intake:

Graduate School of Global Studies	Spring Admission
Doctoral Program in Global Studies	22
Doctoral Program in Japan Studies	9
Joint Doctoral Program for Sustainability Research	2

Eligibility:

Those who have obtained or are expected to obtain a master's or a professional degree by Mar. 31, 2027.
For other conditions, please see pages 1-2 of the admission information.

Schedule:

- Application Period	Nov. 9 – 12, 2026
- Submission of Thesis	Late Nov. 2026 – Jan. 8, 2027
- Entrance Examination (Written)	Jan. 30, 2027
- Entrance Examination (Oral)	Jan. 30, 2027
- Announcement of Result	Feb. 17, 2027
- Entrance Procedure	by Mar. 19, 2027

Application Documents: * ✓ = Forms are available on our website

✓ Application Form	- Research Proposal
- Application Fee	- Thesis
- Certificate of Graduation	- Certificate of Application Fee Exemption (If applicable)
- Transcript	- Certificate of Degree (If applicable)

Selection:

Selection will be made based on the research proposal, thesis, and other submitted documents and the results of the entrance examination (written and oral). Those applying for Peace and Conflict Studies (PCS) or Joint Doctoral Program for Sustainability Research, please see page 11 of the admission information.

Entrance Examination (Written): * Exempted for Joint Doctoral Program and PCS

The entrance examination (written) will be conducted either in language subjects or in subjects related to the discipline. (120 minutes)

Entrance Examination (Oral):

The oral examination is conducted based on the thesis and research proposal submitted.