

13th Annual Symposium of the Consortium for Asian and African Studies (CAAS)

Multiculturalism Revisited

2023.Nov.9 Thu – 10 Fri

Tokyo University of Foreign Studies

- Administration Building
- Large Conference Room
 - Medium Conference Room

Open to the public

Nov.9 (Thu) 13:45-14:30 @ Large Conference Room

Keynote Lecture: Catherine Capdeville-Zeng (INALCO)

Culture and Multiculturalism :

The Specific Case of Chinese Multiculturalism

Through French and Chinese Anthropological Lectures

Visit here for more information →

Thursday, November 9

13:15-14:30	Symposium Opening Address by Kayoko Hayashi, President of TUFS Address by Daisuke Shinagawa, CAAS Joint Coordinator (TUFS) Keynote Lecture by Catherine Capdeville-Zeng (INALCO)
	@ Large Conference Room	@ Medium Conference Room
14:40-16:20	• Session 1 Korean diaspora, identity problems, and unification	• Session 2 Political aspects of multiculturalism
16:30-18:10	• Session 3 Issues in multilingual communications and multicultural societies	• Session 4 Education in multicultural settings

18:30~19:30 Reception (Symposium presenters and staff only)

Friday, November 10

10:30-12:10	• Session 5 Cultural fusion and creation of multicultural representations	• Session 6 Globalization and representations of multiculturalism
12:10-13:30	Lunch break
13:30-15:10	• Session 7 Representations of anti/multiculturalism	• Session 8 Inter-continental transmission of knowledge
15:20-17:00	• Session 9 Religious pluralism and history	• Session 10 Discourses on migration

17:10 Closing Remarks

Address by Nobuo Haruna, Vice President for International Affairs (TUFS), CAAS Executive Coordinator

Visit here for more information →