

April 2027 Admission Information

School of Japan Studies

Entrance Examination (English-Speaker Track)

< with Japanese Government (MEXT) scholarship opportunity >

The School of Japan Studies offers students the opportunity to study Japan from a multi-disciplinary, international perspective. The program is unique in that it enables Japanese and international students to take the same courses and learn in a shared environment. Students will learn innovative problem-solving skills, which will prepare them for life in an increasingly diverse and globalized world. Students who enter the School of Japan Studies will take classes from TUFS' Global Liberal Arts Program and Core Seminar Program, while receiving intensive training in Japanese. Upon graduation, students will be awarded a Bachelor's degree in Language and Area Studies. To graduate, students must complete 125 credits and submit a graduation project thesis or equivalent project. Theses may be written in English or Japanese.

■ Admission Policy

(1) Our Mission

The mission of the Tokyo University of Foreign Studies is to better equip students with the skills and knowledge they will require to cooperate within the context of value systems and cultures that differ from their own to address the challenges confronting global society. The diverse education offered at TUFS in the languages, cultures, and societies of various regions of the world provides a nurturing environment that instills in students a deeper understanding in and refined sensitivity for their chosen field, enhanced communication skills, and broader perspectives.

(2) The Type of Student We Seek

The undergraduate programs at TUFS offer basic grounding in a range of academic disciplines related to the languages, cultures, and societies of diverse regions of the world, as well as in fields that provide a cross-disciplinary perspective on diverse international problems and issues.

TUFS seeks students who have acquired a comprehensive and thorough basic high school education, either in Japan or elsewhere; who are able to think critically, make informed decisions, and express themselves articulately; who have inquiring minds and a thirst for knowledge; who support the University's mission; and who are eager to work together with people of diverse cultural backgrounds to tackle global problems and issues. The School of Japan Studies welcomes those who desire to study Japan from an international perspective to become global leaders with a deep understanding of Japan, or who seek to contribute to the advancement of multilingual and multicultural societies in Japan and elsewhere.

Future career opportunities are to be found in global corporations, Japanese companies seeking to expand globally, municipal, national, and international organizations, as well as in interpreting and translation, tourism and transport, publishing, media-related corporations, educational and research institutions involved in teaching Japanese language and culture, and as a teacher of the Japanese language in junior and senior high schools. Students may also elect to continue their studies at graduate school to pursue careers in research.

(3) Selection Policy (School of Japan Studies Entrance Examination (English-Speaker Track))

- This examination is for applicants seeking to enter the School of Japan Studies.
- This examination is for applicants who have completed secondary school and wish to enter the School of Japan Studies but are not yet proficient in Japanese.
- During the selection process, significant weight will be given to recommendations from overseas high schools.
- The selection process is comprised of a first and second screening. The first screening will be conducted based on documents submitted by the applicant, such as academic transcripts and English proficiency scores. Those who pass the initial screening will advance to the second screening, which is carried out in the form of an online interview. During each screening, faculty members will assess applicants' desire to study at TUFS, basic academic skills, and ability to think critically, make informed decisions, and explain their ideas with clarity and precision.

■ Eligibility

Applicants must possess a non-Japanese nationality. In addition, they must meet ONE of the following conditions and ALL of the following qualifications:

1. Conditions

Applicants must meet one of the following conditions. For the purpose of these conditions, March 31, 2027 is referred to as "the Reference Date" hereafter.

- (1) Have completed or are expected to complete 12 years of formal education (excluding university education) in foreign countries by the Reference Date, or are considered to have completed an equivalent education by the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology – Japan (MEXT). (See (Note 1) and (Note 2) below.)

- (2) Have obtained or are expected to obtain an overseas qualification for university admission, such as an International Baccalaureate, Abitur, Baccalaureate, GCE A level, International A level, or European Baccalaureate in a foreign country by the Reference Date.
- (3) Have completed or are expected to complete 12 years of education at a WASC, CIS, ACSI, NEASC, Cognia (NCA CASI, NWAC, SACS CASI), or COBIS-accredited international school by the Reference Date.
- (4) Have been screened individually for eligibility and deemed by TUFS to possess the academic ability required to satisfy conditions (1) ~ (3), and will be aged 18 or over as of the Reference Date. (See (Note 3) below.)

(Note 1) Those who have completed or are expected to complete less than 12 years of formal education in foreign countries that require at least 12 years of formal education for university entrance, by skipping grades etc. are included.

(Note 2) Those who are considered to have completed an equivalent education by the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology – Japan (MEXT)” are:

- ① Those who have passed an accreditation examination in a foreign country (including examinations that are equivalent to national examinations), which tests whether or not an applicant has an academic capacity equivalent to or higher than that of a student who has completed 12 years of formal education in that country and is aged 18 or over as of the Reference Date.
- ② Those who have completed a school education equivalent to a high school education in a foreign country (including those who have passed the accreditation examination (including examinations that are equivalent to national examinations), which tests whether or not an applicant has an academic capacity equivalent to or higher than that of a student who has completed high school education in that country), and have completed or are expected to complete the MEXT-designated preparatory education for those seeking admission in Japan by the Reference Date.
- ③ Those who have completed or are expected to complete their compulsory education by the Reference Date in a foreign country in which high school requires less than 12 years to complete. Individuals in this category are expected to have completed a course of a formal education, which is separately designated by the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology – Japan (MEXT). This restriction applies only to individuals who have completed an education of at least 11 years in a country in which high school requires less than 12 years to complete and who have satisfied other conditions set by MEXT.

■ Application Procedures

Definition of Terms
Applicant	Person applying to study at TUFS
High School Representative	Person at the Applicant's high school who will submit the Applicant's Letter of Recommendation

1. Request the high school to write and submit the Letter of Recommendation.

About the Letter of Recommendation:

- The Letter of Recommendation must be written in English or Japanese and signed by the principal or school head of the applicant's high school.
- The Letter of Recommendation must include the TUFS Cover Letter, which template is available on the application website.
- The Letter of Recommendation must be addressed to the president of TUFS. Detailed instructions for writing the Letter of Recommendation are provided on the Cover Letter form.

How to submit the Letter of Recommendation:

- The Applicant must arrange to have the Letter of Recommendation submitted by the high school.
- The Applicant must complete and send the "Letter of Recommendation Request Form" linked below. Upon submission, the university will contact the High School Representative via the email address provided in the form to request the submission.

TUFS may contact the High School Representative to confirm the information submitted via this form.

Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship

A scholarship provided by the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology – Japan (MEXT) may be granted to some of those who apply for admission. Applicants who meet the following criteria will be considered for a scholarship.

If you wish to be considered for a MEXT scholarship, check the “Yes” box on page 2 of the Application Form.

■ Number of Students Granted: 8

■ Duration of Scholarship: Within the standard years of enrollment (4 years)

* Students must fulfill the stated academic requirements each year

■ Benefits for Scholarship Recipients (as of April 2026 admission)

*Subject to change for April 2027 admission

- (1) A monthly scholarship JPY120,000.
- (2) Exemption from Admission Fees and Tuition.
- (3) Travel Expenses to/from Japan (Return expenses will be provided once the student has graduated).

■ Eligibility for the Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship

*Subject to change for April 2027 admission

Candidates must satisfy all of the following conditions:

- (1) Must have average grade points of 2.30 or higher for the most recently attended degree program (for those who have already graduated) or degree program the applicant is currently attending (for those who are currently a student), and are expected to maintain the same level during the duration of the scholarship.
- (2) Must have the nationality of a country with which Japan has diplomatic relations. An applicant who has Japanese nationality at the time of application is not eligible. However, persons with dual nationality who hold Japanese nationality and whose place of residence at the time of application is outside of Japan are eligible to apply as long as they choose the nationality of the foreign country and renounce their Japanese nationality by the date of their arrival in Japan.
- (3) Must be born on or after April 2, 2002.
- (4) Must satisfy any one of the following conditions.
 - (a) have completed or be expected to complete 12 years of schooling in countries other than Japan by March 2027.

CEFR Comparison Chart

C2		8.5 - 9.0		200 - 230
C1	95 - 120	7.0 - 8.0	1845 - 1990	180 - 199
B2	72 - 94	5.5 - 6.5	1560 - 1840	160 - 179
B1	42 - 71	4.0 - 5.0	1150 - 1555	140 - 159
A2			625 - 1145	120 - 139
A1			320 - 620	100 - 119

1 Your score = TOEIC L&R + (TOEIC S&W × 2.5)

e.g) L&R=820, S&W=300

$$820 + 300 \times 2.5 = 1,570 \rightarrow \text{CEFR B2}$$
