Japan's Challenges at the United Nations and My Life as a Diplomat: 1974-2016

Mr. Motohide Yoshikawa has 42-years experience as a diplomat and served as Ambassador of Japan to Spain and to the OECD before appointed as Ambassador and Permanent Representative of Japan to the United Nations.
After retiring from the 42-year diplomatic service in 2016, he taught at his Alma Mater, International Christian University, ICU, as Distinguished Professor from 2017 until March 2026.

Dr. Sadako Ogata and Mr. Yoshikawa [2014].
While a student at ICU, he was a student of Sadako Ogata, and the two maintained a long-standing relationship.

This lecture is part of the course "United Nations and its Refugee Agency" held every Monday, second period, in Room 115.
