Thursday Welcome Seminar

SPEAKER: Ana

Talk the Talk with Ana – A True Polyglot!

Our amazing English advisor Ana speaks multiple languages! Come hear how languages open doors to the world! Don't miss it!

Hi there! My name is Ana and I have many interests, but my areas of expertise are writing, languages, and communications. In fact, prior to becoming an educator I was a polyglot translator and interpreter (I trained in conference interpreting), although I had other roles as well. Having lived in seven countries and traveled to many more, I am rather international, but I am mostly from the suburbs of New York City. I became an educator because I like to help people and I need to always be learning something new otherwise my brain turns to porridge, and teaching actually involves a lot of learning! I hope to share my love of learning, languages and all things international with TUFs students. Oh, and if you need book suggestions you can come to me anytime because I love reading. One thing I really dislike, though, is parties, for I am an introvert.
