I am a PhD candidate in Visual Culture at Nagoya University, with a special interest in visual cultural communication as seen in international art exchange programs. I am also an editor and grant writer for an academic NPO, and hopes my experience in writing can help students at ELC. Outside of academia, I love to create things, such as writing, gardening, and embroidery. Originally from the United States, I speak English and Japanese.

Hi everyone! My name is Ashley, and I have been living in Japan since 2018. I first moved to Nagoya to study Second Language Acquisition and Japanese. Then, I moved to Tokyo to further my studies in English Education (TESOL) and Linguistics. In my spare time, I enjoy thrifting at second hand clothing stores, and more recently, going to the gym! I would love to share my experiences and hobbies with you! See you around ELC!

Friday Fun at the ELC – Where Languages and Laughter Meet!
Thanks to our three amazing advisors, Fridays are the liveliest days of the week at ELC!

Living in Japan has been a wonderful experience, and I've enjoyed immersing myself in the rich culture and beautiful landscapes. Outside the classroom, I'm passionate about hiking and exploring new travel destinations.
