

Wednesday, June 19th

Writing Seminar:

PLAGIARISM

昼休み 11:50 - 12:30

ELCポイント対象

PRESENTER: Dawn Lavelle

This seminar will introduce tips on how to avoid committing plagiarism. Acknowledging other academics and specialist in certain fields whose ideas we use in our papers, is an integral part of academic rigor.

- Keeping records of your source materials
- Integrating another's words and ideas
- Using in-text citations
- Including reporting expressions
- Using appropriate reporting words
- Citing sources at the end
- Using the appropriate style (APA.MLA)

Dawn Lavelle has had many years of experience teaching writing and composition skills in New York City and in Tokyo. This is her sixth year working at TUFS. She received her master's degrees in TESOL and in Instructional Technology from Columbia University.

Make your reservation NOW via RESERVA:

