

The diagram is set against a teal background with a faint map of East Asia. At the top, the word "GRADUATE" is written in large, yellow, serif capital letters. Below this, a bullet point in white text reads: "• The program offers the Ph.D. in East Asian Languages and Civilizations (EALC).". Below the bullet point, a purple arrow-shaped box points to the right and contains the text "The principal fields" in white. Below this arrow is a large white rectangular box with a black border, divided into four horizontal sections. Each section contains text in bold black font: "Chinese, Japanese, and Korean literature", "Chinese, Japanese, Korean, and Inner Asian history (including Tibet)", "East Asian Buddhism", and "East Asian Arts, Film and Cultural Studies".

Overseas Programs

- Japan
- China
- Korea
- Vietnam

- A. Harvard Summer School/Japan
- B. Summer Language Programs in Japan
- C. Year-long Programs in Japan of which Harvard is a member institution
- D. Summer Japanese Language Programs in U.S.
- E. Other recommended study sites in Japan
- F. Full scholarships for year-long study in Japan
- G. Supplementary scholarships
- H. Summer Internships

Reischauer Institute of Japanese Studies

About the Institute

- The Reischauer Institute supports research on Japan and provides a forum for related academic activities and the exchange of ideas.
- It seeks to stimulate scholarly and public interest in Japan and Japanese studies at Harvard and around the world.

Programs & Projects

- The Reischauer Institute supports Japanese studies at Harvard through a wide variety of academic projects and public programs.
- Academic initiatives range from humanities to social sciences, from early history to the present, and from research projects aimed to produce scholarly publications to more informal study groups of scholars.
- These projects are centered on faculty and students at Harvard and include Institute associates in research from the New England region and visiting scholars from Japan and other countries.